SKINCARE TIPS AND INFORMATION

Essential Oils

1. Lavender – Helps with burns, sprains, healing wounds, insomnia, stress and the circulatory system. Lavender is the safest oil, and one of the most soothing, therefore it is often used to calm the mind and body. Just spray the diluted oil on blankets, pillows and around the room before bedtime or add the drops right into the bath (as it will dissolve into the water, no carrier oil is necessary).
2. Tea Tree Oil – Helps cold sores heal, oily skin, athlete's foot, and aids in clearing up passages and soothe coughs in patients suffering from bronchitis.
3. Geranium – This rich floral scent helps fade broken capillaries. Apply at night to heal bruises and clear the respiratory system. Massaged into the neck and chest, geranium will soothe sore throats. Women will find this oil especially helpful during PMS as it works to soothe nervous tension and hormonal imbalance.
4. Eucalyptus – Aids in clearing up skin infections, colds and flu, and acts as a great insect repellent. Eucalyptus can be rubbed into the chest and back when you have a cold, and works wonders on muscle aches. Add a bit to your wash as a last rinse for sheets and pillowcases.
5. Grapefruit – The essence of this fruit is widely acclaimed for fighting cellulite, but it also tones the skin and tissues, and cuts down on water retention, and soothes the mind in its role as an anti-depressant. Because of its multitude of applications, grapefruit is a fantastic bath oil. Add 10-15 drops under the running tap.
6. Peppermint – Soothing for digestion, peppermint is also cool and refreshing whether diffused into the air or applied topically.
7. Lemon – A traditional antiseptic; supports the immune function and improves and protects the skin. Lemon also helps to deodorize and purify air and water.

Other Beneficial Ingredients

1. Aloe Vera is known for its healing powers and replenishes lost moisture in the skin and protects the skin from harmful pollutants.

Sun Protection Factor Info

SPF stands for sun protection factor. SPF in skin creams, makeup and body lotions are designed to create a protective barrier between your sensitive skin and the sun's damaging rays. The numbers represent how many times longer than normal you can catch some rays without burning. Without sunscreen you may normally burn after 15 minutes, depending on your skin type, so if you slather on SPF 6 you can stay in the sun six times longer without burning-or 90 minutes. Simply multiply the amount of time in which you'd normally burn by the SPF level and that will give you how long you can safely be in the sun without burning. Opt for a sunscreen that protects skin from UVB (which burns) and UVA (which causes sun spots, wrinkles, sagging and skin cancer). Broad spectrum products do both. Certain sunscreen chemicals work by interacting with the skin and must be applied about 30 minutes ahead. These include avobenzone (Parsol 1789) and oxybenzone. Also very beneficial are titanium dioxide and zinc oxide (Z-Cote).

Antioxidants and Sunscreens: Sunscreens containing vitamins C and E lessen the effects of the sun's rays on the skin. This is important because no sunscreen is 100 percent effective. Some rays will get through and cause free-radical damage, which ages skin. Preliminary lab studies show that products with green tea, an antioxidant, may reduce the incidence of skin cancer.

Vitamins and skincare

Essential vitamins A, C, and E effectively refine skin and clear pores. They also have wonderful healing ability for burns and other skin abrasions and to clear up acne scars sooner than without applying topical vitamins.

Copper, Folic Acid and Zinc help skin look healthier, younger and more radiant by boosting the skin's energy and collagen in underlying layers of the skin.

Vitamin A: Proven to help reveal softer, smoother skin and enhance skin's elasticity.

Vitamin C: Antioxidant shown to neutralize sun-damaging free radicals, helping it stay healthy and youthful looking.

Vitamin E: Antioxidant recognized to protect skin from environmental damage (like smog).

Vitamin B Complex: Proven to give skin a boost of energy and maintain soft, supple skin.

Copper & Zinc: Both proven to fight free radical damage.

Legs and feet – improving circulation and helping prevent spider veins. Always try to massage your legs and feet with a loofah in the bath or shower. Salt scrubs are wonderful at sloughing off dry skin and rejuvenating the circulation to help prevent spider veins. Try not to sit for more than an hour at a time with at least stretching your legs or going for a short walk.

Makeup tips:

When choosing your mascara shade, let your hair color and intensity be your guide. Navy looks great if your hair is any shade of blonde or gray.

Eyeshadow Secret: Apply lighter shadow across lid up to brown bone. Contour with deeper shadow in crease or lid from outer corner near lashes up to brow bone and down to inner corner. BLEND.

Brow Know-How: Choose a brow pencil or powder nearest to your natural color. To shape, always tweeze from underneath in the direction the hair grows. Best to tweeze right after you shower.

Blushing Tips: Apply blush at center of cheek below the outer edge of your eye's iris. (Blush under your cheekbone makes your face look fuller!) Sweep color up and out. Blend well.

Hands and Nails: Get your hands and nails in condition before winter takes its hold on you by slathering your hands, nails and cuticles with a thick, rich moisturizing cream before bedtime and if possible wearing gloves to bed after putting on the cream. Also, pure vitamin E oil or aloe is a wonderful dry skin
